To whom it may concern:

The initiative PerMondo was created by the translation agency Mondo Agit (Mondo Services Agencia de Traducción, S.L.). PerMondo is an independent initiative that offers free translation to charitable organisations, foundations or any other kind of organisation, initiative or project that offers a benefit to society and does not seek to make financial gain. There is no money exchange for this service, but if organisations want, they can support volunteers (if so, compensation will always go directly to the volunteer).

Mondo Agit, the translation agency, is a for-profit company; PerMondo, a non-profit initiative. Neither Mondo Agit nor PerMondo has financial benefit from PerMondo's volunteer translations. PerMondo only receives money through sponsors and advertising and all this money remains in PerMondo (for the website and workers). At the moment, Mondo Agit is the only sponsor of PerMondo, but this will hopefully change soon.
